

What Is Crossed Blanket Stitch

The crossed blanket stitch creates a decorative "X" pattern along the edge of the fabric.

Closed Blanket Stitch Step By Step

Mark The Stitching Line And Dots

So, grab a ruler and draw a 180 degree straight parallel lines on the fabric. You can use any chalk, but I like using a pencil.

Take a pencil and mark a dot on the top line

Insert The Needle Into The Starting Point Of The Mark

To start a blanket stitch, insert the needle into the starting point of the marked line.

Push The Needle Through 2nd Dot From The Above Row

Next, push the needle through the second dot from the above row. And then push back through the 1st dot in the bellow line at 45 degrees.

Push The Needle Through 1st Dot From Above The Row

Now, push the needle through the 1st dot from the above row and back into the 2nd dot of the line.
